

§ ITINERARY · ONE DAY · SAN LUIS OBISPO

San Luis Obispo, breakfast to last call

One day in San Luis Obispo, walked end to end — the Mission at mid-morning, Edna Valley in the afternoon, and Higuera Street when the market closes it to cars.

ONE DAY · SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY · BEST ON THURSDAY

San Luis Obispo is a town you can eat your way across without moving the car. Plan it for a Thursday, when five blocks of Higuera become the farmers market. Everything below is within a short walk of Mission Plaza, except the afternoon tasting.

§ 01

One day

8:30

Coffee downtown

A counter, a window seat, a pastry worth the walk.

9:30

Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa and the creek walk

The 1772 mission, then the path along San Luis Creek.

1 · 751 Palm St, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

11:00

Luna Red

Late breakfast on Mission Plaza; the corn pancakes, a garden-herb mimosa.

2 · 1023 Chorro St, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

1:00

Lincoln Market & Deli

A neighborhood deli on Broad Street. Take it to the patio.

3 · 496 Broad St, San Luis Obispo, CA 93405

2:30

An Edna Valley tasting room

Ten minutes south. Cool-climate Pinot and Chardonnay.

5:00

Check in downtown

Settle in a few blocks from Higuera.

6:00

Downtown SLO Farmers' Market, Higuera Street

Thursdays only. Five blocks of produce, tri-tip smoke, a band. Winter hours 6–8:30 PM.

4 · Higuera St & Chorro St, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

7:30

Novo Restaurant & Lounge

A creekside table, scallops, a Central Coast wine list.

5 · 726 Higuera St, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

9:00

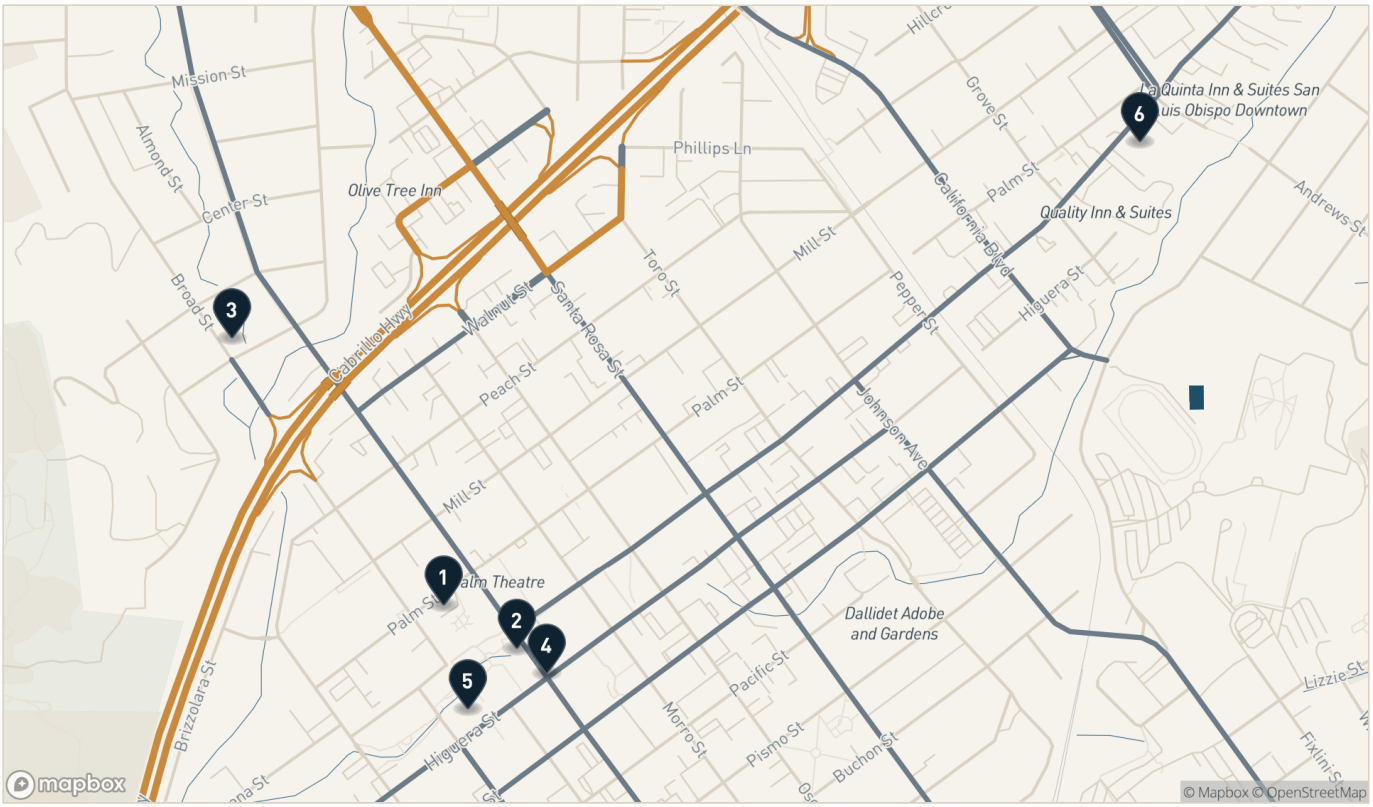

Central Coast Brewing at The HUB

1701 Monterey Street. The Monterey Street Pale Ale, and a fire pit.

6 · 1701 Monterey St, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

§ THE ROUTE

Every stop, on one map

1. Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa and the creek walk
2. Luna Red
3. Lincoln Market & Deli
4. Downtown SLO Farmers' Market, Higuera Street
5. Novo Restaurant & Lounge
6. Central Coast Brewing at The HUB

Alternates

Not a Thursday? Skip the market and move dinner to Ox + Anchor at 6:30, open Wednesday to Sunday. On a Saturday, Luna Red opens at 10.

The live itinerary

Scan for the latest version, the route in Google Maps and every link.
thecentralcoast.com/itineraries/san-luis-obispo-one-day/